Thanks so much for doing such a nice job with our clients. I spoke to them yesterday and they told me how pleased they were with the trip.

(And particularly amazed that you found them at the train station I may add!)

I really enjoyed my tour with Cambrian Routes guide, Peter Davies. What I liked most was the flexible itinerary and Peter is a great conversationalist, even if he is part mountain goat, so there is never a dull moment

I can't praise Peter and Evie enough. This was a trip of a lifetime, at least for me, the family genealogist. We walked where my ancestors walked. I saw the church where they were married. I saw the cemetery where they were buried. Peter and Evie made it even more special, telling what it was like in the time period that they lived; telling us about Wales; the culture. We learned so much more than if we had just gone by ourselves without a guide

Even though Peter and Evie had made up a schedule ahead of time on when and where we would go, they were happy to make changes if we wanted to. Towards the end of the week, the family mentioned that we would like to see a castle. Peter rearranged the schedule to allow time for us to visit one while we were there.

Peter and Evie did a fantastic job! Besides driving us everywhere (we had talked about renting a car and one of us driving. Shudder. Those lanes are so tiny AND the whole country drives on the wrong side of the road!

Hi:

The ladies called today and they had a FABULOUS time and they really enjoyed Peter (you). They loved revisiting Ruthin and liked the inns. So, I shall be contacting you with my next Wales destination travellers

We really appreciate the great tour and the time you took to find the addresses. We had a lovely time in Wales and will hope to return before too long. We will certainly encourage others to travel there as well, and to recommend your outstanding service to them

I have had the good fortune to have travelled with Peter twice. The first time was in 2005 when he escorted me and my brother, as well as our dad and stepmom all around Wales. We enjoyed that experience so much that we took another family trip with Peter in 2007 to Ireland - and this time we brought spouses and kids along for a somewhat more challenging total of 8 of us.

In each case, Peter secured first rate accommodations and meals, and he ensured that we had comfortable transportation. He worked with us to plan an itinerary but was flexible and gracious enough to accommodate any last minute changes that we made. We all found Peter to be an extremely knowledgeable guide and a very personable one.

I have travelled many times to Europe, both independently and with tour groups, and I would definitely say that travelling with Cambrian Routes is by far the best way to experience a new place and get the most out of your vacation. All of us, novice and experienced travellers alike, were very happy with Peter and Cambrian Routes.

We still talk about our great trip to Wales. Hope all is well with you, and that you have a great 2008.

I know that you are our MAN when it comes to Ireland/UK trips, and I have already mentioned it to a few people.

We hired Peter to take us on a 10 trip thru Wales last May. First let me say that we have travelled quite a lot. We have been to Italy, Greece, Ireland, Wales and England as well as many states in the US. My daughter and I researched tour companies in Wales for this family trip and finally settled on Peter after checking on his references and deciding that he offered what we were looking for.

We wanted a slow pace and we wanted to see family on the way. Once we decided to go with Peter, he and I emailed back and forth and worked out a day by day tour that took us exactly where we wanted to go.

We worked in one day of visiting a long lost cousin, visiting the graveyard and church of our ancestors. Peter had researched the directions and had it all ready to go for us. We had a fantastic holiday with Peter. In fact, I know my whole family agrees that it was the best holiday of our lives.

The hotels were great, all included breakfast. We were left in the evenings to relax or walk around the small towns which we loved doing. It was the perfect combination of structure and free time

We are hoping to go back next year or 2015 to tour Ireland and Scotland and it most definitely will be with Peter

Amazing trip in Wales. I'm in the process of putting together a 'movie' from still photographs that Ken took. I'm adding music and some commentary. I had to look long and hard to get some "duelling banjo" music to go with the Cilrhyden photos...ha-ha

Think of you so often and wish we were back there doing more exploring with you.

What a wonderful time!! It was a chance of a lifetime and I am so happy I was able to do it. Peter was very knowledgeable in all fields, or at least he made us think that! HA He had done his homework on all the sites and genealogy areas. Even had some facts about the family we did not know. He was a good driver and I was glad he was behind the wheel. There were small roads, driving on the left side, fast drivers and many back roads. He made it feel like we had no time constraints, but somehow kept us on time, arriving back at our hotels around 5 or 5:30 each evening. The hotels (castles) were fun. Each one was so different and had so much history. The people were so nice and so willing to help us out in anyway. We had such a great time.

We had a great time. Everyone was very satisfied with the trip all the way around! We were all sad to come home and are missing our full Welsh breakfasts and being together!!

I've emailed Peter, inquiring for the family information he collected. He was great!

Thanks,

Hi Peter, thanks so much for the email I actually only spoke with Veronica today she got hit pretty bad with Jet lag coming home & only just starting to feel human again.

She had nothing but praise for your services, there was nothing you couldn't or wouldn't do for them & they actually wished they had you for the entire holiday they enjoyed it so much. So a fabulous report & thank you so much for looking after them

Best wishes for the rest of the year & I will most definitely send more happy clients your way

Regards

Good Afternoon!

We all agree the trip was fantastic. You went all out to make sure we saw as much as possible. I appreciate that you took a little detour to where my ancestors came from.

I'm sure you are still recovering from spending so much time in our company!
